cocktail lounges because I've been so blue. The bartenders are always happy to point out the women in the place who are "looking." As far as I'm concerned, they can KEEP ON LOOKING. I want a decent, respectable woman around my own age, and they just don't seem to be available.

My greatest pleasure is to play pinocle with the boys. But five nights a week at the card table is a poor substitute for what I really want. What does a guy like me do?—CHRIS.

Dear Chris: A guy like you gets smart and says to himself, "Chris, you're not going to meet any women in that pinocle game." Then he cuts the card-playing to one night a week and joins groups where men and women get together.

Apparently you've been so busy with the boys you haven't been reading me regularly. This is what I recommend: Join a library study group, a church group, an adult education class, a mixed bowling league, an art club, a Great Books group. Go where thinking people gather. You won't find them hanging around cocktail lounges or riveted to bar stools. Get interested in politics. The year 1960 is going to be a great one. The volunteer groups need help and many a romance has boomed at campaign headquarters. Get GOING!

To learn the difference between a marriage that "settles down" and one that "gets dull," send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "What to Expect from Marriage," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Copyright 1959, Field Enterprises, Inc.

The Native Daughters of the Golden West is the oldest women's patriotic organization in the State, founded in 1886, at Jackson, in the heart of the Mother Lode.

It was formed by wives, daughters, grand-children and other descendants of pioneers who came to California in the early 1880's to seek their fortunes.

Many members of the statewide order are descended from Spanish, Portuguese, French and Mexican explorers and/or military personnel, who landed on these shores and settled in the States in the 1700's.

Purpose of the founding, back in 1885, was to venerate the courage, labors, accomplishments and characters of those brave, adventurous men and women.

Only California-born women are eligible for membership. Approximately 26,000 women belong to the statewide order, with 220 "parlors" (lodges) situated throughout the State.

Projects of the order include marking of historical landmarks of California; the NDGW Children's Foundation, which assists ailing children up to the age of 16 years, regardless of where they were born, and whose families' income bracket is ABOVE that which can receive State or County aid when in need.
